Date..... SEP 5 1949

The Economic Commission for Latin America, at the close of its Second Session, held at Havana, bearing in mind the generous invitation which it received from the Government of Cuba to hold its meetings in that city and acknowledging especially the cordial and efficient cooperation and assistance afforded it by the Government and people of Cuba.

Has the honour and particular satisfaction of presenting its sincere and deep gratitude to:

His Excellency the President of the Republic of Cuba, Dr. Carlos Prío Socarrás, whose interest and concern for the work of the ECLA has stimulated its progress;

His Excellency the Minister of State Ingeniero Carlos Hevia, who has actively followed the work of the Commission;

The Mayor of Havana, Dr. Nicolas Castellanos, for his kind offer of the premises of the Valdes Rodriguez Municipal School;

The Chairman of the ECLA, Dr. Luis Machado, for his wise and intelligent direction of the work of the Conference;

Similarly expresses its sincere gratitude to all the other national and municipal authorities and private organs; for facilitating the accomplishment of the Commission's task and providing hospitality for its delegations in Havana; and

To the representatives of the press of all countries, who worked with great enthusiasm and conscientiousness to keep the public informed on the work of the Commission.

Decides to place a floral tribute before the statue of Marti in the Central Park of Havana, as a demonstration of its respect for the true American policy of the illustrious Cuban patriot.
